FLORIDA'S NEXT GOVERNOR

The nomination of Judge W. S. Jennings for governor of Florida by the state democratic convention in Jacksonville last week was a victory for integrity and sobriety. The convention was composed of the sterling business men of the state who are in the main exponents of morality, religion and good government and it was evident from the start that Judge Jennings was the choice of the majority.

The four other candidates are all men of ability and high moral character and either one of them would have adorned the gubernatorial chair and reflected honor upon our fair state, but neither one of them could get the required number of votes, hence after the forty-fourth ballot they all withdrew, making the nomination of Judge Jennings practically unanimous.

It was the universal opinion that the convention as a whole was the most sober, intelligent and good humored body of men that ever assembled in a political meeting in Florida and its actions were all deliberate and in line with the best interests of the people. The gubernatorial nominee is a true type of clean statesmanship and righteous government and his administration will no doubt be a credit to himself and a blessing to our commonwealth. The nominees for all the other state offices are good men and can be counted on to do their whole duty. It is now in order to strike tents and go forward with our grand old ship of state.

THE WOMEN OF HOMER

Although the women of Athens in the days of its glory had a position which is today believed to have been not merely inferior, but servile and debased, yet the earlier women, both of what may be called the period of the Homeric singer and of the Homeric listener, were evidently a very superior order, receiving respect and duty, and giving a high tone to their social life. There are but two ignoble women in all the pages of Homer, Helen and Clytemnestra; and even to them a certain sort of honor was awarded by those about them. All the other women of Homer's song were dignified, gentle, noble, with lofty standards of morals and behavior, and exerting a wide and valuable influence. They are generally characterized by a sweet courtesy; they have a natural refinement; and in all the story that is told of them we recognize a warmth of family feeling, a lofty elegance of manners, a grace which is hardly excelled by the manners and habits of the ladies of today.

It was evidently this feeling about marriage in ancient days which made the position of women honorable, gave them safety, allowed them to cultivate the graces, lent them an authority and influence that was forceful, and made the tale seem real to those who heard it sung, as there was nothing in it contrary to their own experience. We read of it all with a great sense of naturalness and kinship, feeling that what is right is so the world over, and realizing that it is with women today as it was three thousand years ago; their power and their protection lie in the obedience and the reverence that are given to the sanctity of the institution of marriage.—Harper's Bazar.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1. Trial bottles at Garrett & Gerig's, Ocala, Fla., and all other druggists.

CANCER Cannot be Cut Out or Removed with Plasters

Surgical operations and flesh destroying plasters are useless, painful and dangerous, and besides, never cure Cancer. No matter how often a cancerous sore is removed, another comes at or near the same point, and always in a worse form. Does not this prove conclusively that Cancer is a blood disease, and that it is folly to attempt to cure this deep-seated, dangerous blood trouble by cutting or burning out the sore, which, after all, is only an outward sign of the disease—a place of exit for the poison?

Cancer runs in families through many generations, and those whose ancestors have been afflicted with it are liable at any time to be stricken with the deadly malady.

Only Blood Diseases can be Transmitted from One Generation to Another

—further proof that Cancer is a disease of the blood.

To cure a blood disease like this you must cure the entire blood system—remove every trace of the poison. Nothing cures Cancer effectually and permanently but S. S. S.

S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes all taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cells. No mere tonic or ordinary blood medicine can do this. S. S. S. goes down to the very roots of the disease, and forces out the deadly poison, allowing the sore to heal naturally and permanently.

A little pimple, a harmless looking wart or mole, a lump in the breast, a cut or bruise that refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, should all be looked upon with suspicion, as this is often the beginning of a bad form of cancer.

Mrs. Sarah M. Keeling, of Windsor Ave., Bristol, Tenn., writes: "I am 41 years old and for three years had suffered with a severe form of Cancer on my jaw, which the doctors in this city said was incurable, and that I could not live more than six months. I accepted their statement as true, and had given up all hope of ever being well again, when my druggist, knowing of my condition, recommended S. S. S. After taking a few bottles the sore began to heal, much to the surprise of the physicians, and in a short time made a complete cure. I have gained in flesh, my appetite is splendid, sleep is refreshing—in fact, am enjoying perfect health."

Our medical department is in charge of physicians of long experience, who are especially skilled in treating Cancer and other blood diseases. Write for any advice or information wanted, we make no charge whatever for this service.
